Tom Gebes Named By Builder Magazine As 40th Most-Influential Person in the Home Building Industry

Source: Business Wire
Publication date: December 18, 2006

BuilderMT--the nation's leading provider of production management software for residential homebuilders--today announced that Tom Gebes, the company's president and founder, has landed the number forty (#40) spot on the Builder list of the fifty most influential people in the home building industry. Gebes is the only software or technology leader on the list, which was assembled by the editors of Builder magazine. The entry notes that, "Builders notoriously spurn information technology, but Gebes and BuilderMT keep finding ways to win new customers. The software company has grown an average of 37 percent per year over the last three years and now supports more than 600 production builders. Some of BuilderMT's best-known products are its Internet portal for subs and suppliers, work-flow management software, and a scheduling application that runs on a BlackBerry."

"To be included in this good company is remarkable and I am thankful for this recognition," said Tom Gebes, who joins the list alongside people like Ben Benanke, the Chairman of the Fed; David Kohler, of Kohler Kitchen and Bath Group; and Jerry Howard, the CEO of the National Association of Home Builders. "This is really a tribute to all of our builder customers who help direct the development of our software, and to our team at BuilderMT, who have developed a world-class set of applications."

BuilderMT has established itself as the best-selling, most award-winning software suite for residential home builders of nearly any size, with year-on-year growth that outpaces all of its

About BuilderMT

For large and medium-size homebuilders in the $250 billion homebuilding industry, BuilderMT provides highly customizable building process management software that works in tandem with Sage Timberline Office accounting and estimating software, systems used by one in four of the Builder 100. BuilderMT has been purchased by more than 600 corporations and 4,000 individuals that manage nearly 300,000 housing starts annually, more than 20% of the new home market. BuilderMT is widely recognized as a leader in process-driven, best-building practices for builders, as well as customer service, warranty applications, on-line training, and innovative wireless applications. Since its inception in 1999, BuilderMT has maintained its status as a debt-free, highly profitable company that invests its profits back into infrastructure and software development.
